

The Cornell Bulletin

V. S. RAM

ED. IN-CHIEF

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

M. HESS.

E. REISMAN

A. QUINLAN

M. ALBERTSON.

E. SWITZERMAN.

E. HIEBEL

VOL. II NO. IV.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Aug. 16, 1916.

The board of this paper has decided to continue issuing the BULLETIN free of charge to students for the coming week. This has been thought advisable in order to reach not only the girls in the dormitories but also those living outside before limiting the output to subscribers. Boxes will be placed in Risley, Sage, Dom. Econ. Bldg. and the library for miscellaneous notices. Make use of them! Cooperate with the board by procuring news as well as by your subscription. It is your paper. Stimulate its success by your interest.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

Election of President of outside Organized houses to-day from 12 to 2 at Sage, Risley and Dom Econ. The nominees are Editha Smith, Jeanette Short, Mabel Baldwin and Helen Bell.

Election of Sophomore member to Sage House Committee today from 12 to 2 at Sage.

Edna Cassel has been appointed census taker.

The officers of Sage House Committee are as follows:

Edna Cassel- Treasurer
 Marjorie Sewell- Secretary
 Melva Latimore- Ex. Com.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

We want every woman Student to register for one or more of these sports. If you don't know how to play we'll teach you, so don't hesitate about signing up. We want every one- Come out and support your Class.

THE REVIEW.

Don't you believe in Preparedness? Then prepare for the first issue of the Review by signing up for it now.

WANTED $\frac{3}{4}$ MORE A THELETYPE.

We want more candidates for every sport. The present registration is as follows:

Basket-ball	Rowing
1917-8	1917-9
1918-12	1918-16
1919-21	1919-29
1920-35.	1920-39

Field Hockey	Baseball
1917-5	1917-6
1918-12	1918-10
1919-12	1919-14
1920-24	1920-16

Tennis Tournament

1917-3
 1918-9
 1919-11
 1920-18

Upperclassmen! If you want to see your picture and pictures of your teams call at the gymnasium office this week for the New Hand Book.

CLASSES.

The Senior class picnic will be held Tuesday 5:30 on North Shore of Beebe- All come.

The 1918 class meeting which was to be held in Sage at 7:30 Wednesday night will be postponed on account of prayer meeting until Thursday night.

Y.W.C.A.

There will be a meeting of the small cabinet at 5 o'clock to night. Please bring your University schedules so cabinet meetings can be arranged.

There will be a meeting of the Social Committee of Y.W.C.A. at Barnes 7:30 tonight. Everybody come!