Would a way, you
people give us
To make '19, like the other people.

May we congratulate the Review for this excellent issue, the Dormitory Number. It has made us realize, for the first time, we think, that our big plan is really launched. We are on the way; our Dormitory system is coming true now; we have seen the enthusiastic work of the Alumnae behind us, and some of the girls have already given their share. Why can't we let our enthusiasm a loose now that the time has come; more than that, why not keep an eye out for a chance to make a little money this Christmas vacation toward the coming true of our Dormitory system.

Freshmen

December 19th, half past seven, Student Government now hath taken. So ye Freshmen list to this, The Hades Stunt we have dismissed Till time and meetings will permit To take ye all to Mystic realms Where Satan and his dreaded imps do dwell Where witches, ghosts and Stygian horrors Await ye, Freshmen, youthful sinners. The fires burn, the charms, the spells Continue still in behalf of Twin Nineteen

SOCIETY NOTES.

The Junior-Fresh Get-To-Gether will go down in the history of Humoresque Events. The Juniors gave the worldly sinners present a glimpse of a "Model Corridor." The stunt starts with a rising bell song, "Wake, Wake! This was followed by the "Sign Up" chorus, "Doners" chorus, Fussers chorus and Proctors' chorus. E. Riley as Joseph and C. Starrett and F. Solfleish as bell boys were the hits of the evening.

The Fresh Stunt was a pantomime. E. Willingmeyer, the Heroine; E. Gutman, the Hero; L. Webster, the Mother and D. Dodds, Vill.
