B. The Employer agrees that during the life of this Agreement, there will be no lockout.

C. Any violation of this Article by the Union or the Employer shall not be subject to Article 16, Grievance Procedure, and either party may pursue such legal remedies as provided by law.

D. Disciplinary action taken against an Employee for violation of this Article shall be subject to Article 16, Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 3 - MAINTENANCE OF RIGHTS AND BENEFITS

Except as modified by the terms of this Agreement, Employees shall retain all rights, and benefits provided in the applicable statutes, written rules, regulations, and policies of the Board of Regents existing at the time of the execution of this Agreement, but excluding matters which are not negotiable under Chapter 89, HRS.

ARTICLE 4 - PERSONNEL POLICY CHANGES

A. All matters affecting Employee relations, including those that are, or may be, the subject of a regulation promulgated by the Employer are subject to consultation with the Union. The Employer shall consult with the Union prior to effecting changes in any major policy affecting Employee relations.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION SECURITY

A. The Employer shall maintain a list of Union members in this bargaining unit who have payroll assignment forms on file with the Employer. This list will be made available to the Union by request and contain information listing the names of Union members, unit Employees, and total Union deductions made without cost to the Union on a form supplied by the Employer.

B. The Employer shall also maintain a list of Employees from whom service fees are deducted from wages to defray the cost for services rendered by the Union in the negotiation and administration of this Agreement; such list will be made available to the Union without cost and on a form supplied by the Employer.

C. The Employer shall maintain and update the above listings and notify the Union of any changes.

D. Union dues, initiation fees, service fees, and other Employer authorized deductions shall be collected twice a month and transmitted to the Union not later than the 15th day of the following month by check drawn to the order of the Union. Upon the issue of such check and transmission of same to the Union, all responsibility on the part of the Employer shall cease with respect to any amount so deducted. The Employer shall not be bound in any manner to see to the application of the proceeds of any such check, nor to investigate the authority of any designated officer of said Union to sign any request, to accept any such check, or to collect the same. The year for this purpose shall begin with the effective date of this Agreement. The Employees may be divided into groups of convenient size and one (1) meeting held for each group so that all Employees will have an opportunity to attend each of said four (4) meetings. The meetings shall last no longer than two (2) hours. The Union may use the Employer's conference rooms and similar building facilities for such meetings. The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the time and place of the meetings at least ten (10) days before they are held, provided, however, that the hours during which the meetings are held shall be mutually acceptable. #### ARTICLE 8 - EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

A. All Employees shall serve a probationary period until obtaining employment security as indicated below. B. Employees shall serve a probationary period of three (3) years of continuous service. These Employees may be terminated without a statement of reasons at any time during the probationary period by the Employer upon thirty (30) calendar days' notice or by non-renewal of their appointment. Employees so terminated have no reemployment rights as defined under Article 9, Employment Rights. An Employee who satisfactorily completes his probationary period shall be given employment security.

C. All Employees who have completed three (3) years of continuous creditable service shall have reemployment rights as defined under Article 9, Employment Rights.

D. Creditable service shall not include periods of leave without pay. Leaves without pay shall not constitute a break in service.

ARTICLE 9 - EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS

A. Employees who have reemployment rights and who are being or are relieved or terminated because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons may exercise the rights outlined below.

B. Employees who are discharged for proper cause which discharge is upheld or not contested or who resign their positions shall not be eligible to exercise any employment rights outlined in this Article.

C. Employees who have reemployment rights and (1) have an appointment with a specified ending date or (2) are notified of impending termination shall upon request be provided information on vacancies which occur during the 60 day period prior to the end of his appointment period. Such Employee must provide the University Personnel Office with a current resume. The Personnel Office, in consultation with the Employee, will make a determination as to the Employee's qualification for preferential selection under paragraph E below.

D. Employees relieved or terminated under paragraph A above will have priority for reappointment for a period of eighteen (18) months upon application for any specific vacancy for which they are qualified. If such person declines an offer for reemployment in a position for which he applies, he forfeits any further reemployment rights.

E. When filling vacancies, the following procedures shall apply:

1. Notices for filling of vacancies shall be given to the Union and publicized in campus and system-wide news bulletins at least fifteen (15) working days prior to the closing date for receipt of applications. If the Employer does not give notice to the Union or publicize in the bulletins for the specified number of days as provided in this Article, the Employee or former Employee with reemployment rights shall be entitled to submit late applications.

e. Other information deemed necessary or desirable by the Employer.

3. Preference shall be given to Employees from within the bargaining unit who are being relieved or terminated because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons and have reemployment rights as outlined in Article 8, Employment Security, who meet the minimum qualifications of the position, for a vacancy in the same or lower pay range as the position from which he is being relieved or terminated.

4. If no applicant in the foregoing category (sub-paragraph 3) meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer shall then consider Employees from within the bargaining unit, who have been relieved or terminated because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons and have reemployment rights as outlined in Article 8, Employment Security, who meet the minimum qualifications as set forth in sub-paragraph 2 above, for a vacancy in the same or lower pay range as the position from which he was relieved or terminated.

5. If more than one applicant from the foregoing category in sub-paragraph 4 above meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the applicant judged by the Employer to be most suitable for filling the vacancy shall be appointed.

6. If no applicant in the foregoing category (sub-paragraph 4) meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer shall then consider other applications from within the bargaining unit.

7. If no applicant in the foregoing categories (sub-paragraphs 3, 4 and 6) meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer may then consider other applications from outside the bargaining unit.

8. If no applicant in sub-paragraphs 3, 4, 6 and 7 meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer may readvertise the vacancy consistent with paragraph E.

F. An Employee who is employed or reemployed in a new position, in accordance with this Article, shall be on probationary status for six (6) months, which may be extended an additional six (6) months by the Employer. A reemployed Employee shall not forfeit his original reemployment rights if separated during his probationary period, unless dismissed for cause.

G. The provisions in this Article are not intended to contravene or conflict with any provisions in any extramural contract or grant, nor is it intended to avoid the provision of Section 89-20, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

H. The Employer shall provide the Union after the end of each calendar quarter a list of former Employees who were terminated and have reemployment rights. The list shall contain the name, job classification and date of termination.

ARTICLE 10 - LAYOFFS

A. The term "layoff" as used in this Article shall mean a termination due to lack of funds or work, of an Employee whose salary is paid from the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time. It shall not apply to terminations at the end of an appointment period for personnel in temporary positions or those in positions paid from extramural funds.

B. Only Employees with employment security shall be entitled to the layoff procedure under this Article.

C. When there is an impending layoff, the Employer shall consult with the Union on its plans for the layoff and notify the affected Employee(s) in writing as soon as possible but not later than ninety (90) calendar days before the impending layoff is to take place.

D. The following procedures shall be followed to effectuate the layoff:

1. In the event an Employee must be laid off, seniority points based on months of creditable service in the APT system shall be used. One point shall be computed for each month of full-time equivalent service.

a. APT service at one-half time or more prior to March 21, 1973 is creditable.

b. Bargaining unit service subsequent to March 20, 1973 is creditable.

c. Only that service in a and b above which occurred during a period of continuous University service immediately prior to the layoff is creditable.

d. Periods of leaves without pay or non-bargaining unit service or non-APT service are not creditable.

2. In determining placement to a vacant position under paragraph 4 below, or a position from which Employee is to be displaced, under paragraph 6 below, the Employee must meet the minimum qualifications of the positions being considered.

3. The Employee must be a member of the bargaining unit.

4. The Employee shall be referred for placement in a vacant position on the basis of his designation of the geographic location(s) where he is willing to be placed and the minimum pay range that he will accept. Such designation shall be binding on the Employee. Referrals shall be to positions which are funded from the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time and full particulars of the position shall be disclosed to the Employee. Employees referred to vacant positions under this Article shall have priority over the filling of vacancies under Article 9, Employment Rights.

5. The Employee shall be entitled to three (3) offers for placement in a vacant position which is in accordance with the terms as specified in 4 above. If however, he should decline to accept the first offer of employment, he shall have no rights under paragraph 6 below.

6. In the event there is no vacant position available in accordance with paragraph 4 above, an Employee shall have rights to positions held by members of the bargaining unit which are funded from the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time in the following order:

a. To a position in the same or a related class occupied by a probationary Employee at the same or lower pay range in descending order. If more than one probationary Employee at any level is subject to displacement, the one with the least seniority points shall be displaced.

b. To a position in the same or a related class occupied by an Employee with the least seniority points at the same or lower pay range in descending order.

7. When an Employee cannot be placed in another position or refuses to accept a position offered under D.5. of this Article he will be terminated subject to the conditions of Article 9, Employment Rights.

E. Waiver of Displacement Rights. The Employee affected by the layoff may waive his bumping rights, in writing, to the Employer, thereby limiting his placement to vacant positions.

F. An Employee who is placed in a position at a lower pay range under paragraph D above, shall maintain his existing classification and pay range and all rights and benefits which would have accrued in the position from which laid off.

ARTICLE 11 - APPOINTIVE POSITION

A. Whenever a former Employee who has "employment security" in accordance with Article 8 is terminated from office before the end of three (3) years for other than cause, he shall be placed into the APT position which he left at a salary equal to that which he would have received had he not assumed his appointed position. Upon such return to the APT position he shall be reinstated with the rights and benefits contained in this Agreement.

B. Within a period of three (3) years, the former Employee shall make his intentions known. After the three (3) year period, the former Employee forfeits his right to return to his APT position.

C. Pending declaration by the Employee within the three (3) year period of his intent as to whether or not to remain in the appointive position, the vacated APT position as well as any other affected APT positions may be filled only by an interim appointment, the provisions of Article 9, Paragraph E, notwithstanding.

D. The Employer may assign a former Employee, who had earned "employment security" who had served more than three (3) years in an appointive position to a vacant bargaining unit position for which he is qualified that is at the same pay grade or lower as the bargaining unit position he last held at a salary equal to that which he would have received had he not assumed his appointive position.

ARTICLE 12 - SAFETY AND HEALTH

A. Safety and Health Requirements. The Employer shall conform to and comply with applicable regulations requiring safe, healthy, and sanitary working conditions prescribed by the Department of Health, Department of Labor, or any other governmental body. In addition, the Employer shall ensure compliance with the applicable provisions of the Hawaii Occupational Safety and Health Law, Act 57, SLH 1972. The Employer shall provide, among other things:

In addition, the Employee's required presence in any of the foregoing situations shall be considered work time.

E. When grievances are filed against Employees of this unit for actions taken by them in the course of their employment and within the scope of their supervisory and/or managerial duties and responsibilities, the Employer shall provide them with necessary staff support and representation. When such assistance is requested by the Employee and the Employer fails to furnish such assistance, the Employee will not be penalized for any improper action taken.

F. The Employer shall provide Employees with advice and assistance in the interpretation and administration of collective bargaining contracts or agreements covering their subordinates. Whenever Employees perform or carry out their assigned supervisory and/or managerial duties and responsibilities, based on such advice and assistance, the Employer agrees to provide full support to the Employees should conflict or grievances arise.

G. The Employee shall have the right to refuse for good cause to work overtime, to accept a temporary assignment, and to perform any work not representative of his class.

B. No derogatory material shall be placed in the Employee's personnel file unless he has had an opportunity to read the material and an opportunity to sign it indicating he had read the material. The Employee shall also be given an opportunity to attach explanatory remarks.

C. All derogatory material in an Employee's file shall be destroyed after two (2) years, unless the Employer makes a determination of the current relevancy of such material. If the Employee or the Union, upon consent of the Employee, disputes the relevancy of such material, the Employer shall attach his reasons for relevancy to such material in writing.

If the Employer determines that the material is relevant currently, it may remain in the file for another year and again reviewed in the same manner.

D. All derogatory material shall be destroyed after five (5) years.

E. The employment history record shall not be destroyed.

F. The Employer may maintain more than one personnel file; however, one of these files shall include, but not be limited to, an Employee's personnel transaction records, derogatory materials, commendatory materials and performance evaluations. The Employer shall designate and inform the Union of the location of the file.

ARTICLE 15 - DISCIPLINE

A. Employees shall not be suspended, demoted or discharged during the terms of their appointments without proper cause. Notice of disciplinary action taken against any Employee shall be in writing and confidential. B. When an Employee is orally reprimanded it shall be done privately.

ARTICLE 16 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Any complaint by an Employee or the Union concerning the application and interpretation of this Agreement shall be subject to the grievance procedure. Any relevant information specifically identified by the grievant or the Union in the possession of the Employer needed by the grievant or the Union to investigate and process a grievance, shall be provided to them upon request within seven (7) working days. The grievance shall be presented to the appropriate supervisor within twenty (20) working days after the occurrence of the alleged violation, or if it concerns an alleged continuing violation, then it must be filed within twenty (20) working days after the alleged violation first became known or should have become known to the Employee involved, except that in the case of an alleged payroll computational error, such allegation shall be presented to the President or his designee in writing within twenty (20) working days after the alleged error is discovered by the Employee, or the grievance may not be considered.

B. An individual Employee may present a grievance to his immediate supervisor and have his grievance heard without intervention of the Union, provided the Union has been afforded an opportunity to be present at the conference(s) on the grievance. Any adjustment made shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. By mutual consent of the Union and the Employer, any time limits within each step may be extended.

C. Informal Step. A grievance shall, whenever possible, be discussed informally between the Employee and his immediate supervisor within the twenty (20) working day limitation provided for in paragraph "A" above. The grievant may be assisted by his Union representative. If the immediate supervisor does not reply by seven (7) working days, the Employee or the Union may pursue the grievance to the next step.

D. Step 1. If the grievant is not satisfied with the result of the informal conference, he or the Union may submit a written statement of the grievance within seven (7) working days after receiving the answers to the informal complaint to (a) the Dean in the case of the University of Hawaii at Manoa (UHM) and Hilo College; (b) Provost in the case of the Community Colleges; or (c) such directors as may be designated by the Chancellors with respect to other administrative or program units (hereinafter "division head"); or if the immediate supervisor does not reply to the informal complaint within seven (7) working days, the Employee or the Union may submit a written statement of the grievance to the division head or his designee within fourteen (14) working days from the initial submission of the informal complaint; or if the grievance was not discussed informally between the Employee and his immediate supervisor, the Employee or the Union may submit a written statement of the grievance to the division head or his designee within the twenty (20) working day limitation provided for in paragraph "A" above.

A meeting shall be held between the grievant and a Union representative with the division head or his designee within seven (7) working days after the written grievance is received. Either side may present witnesses. The division head or his designee shall submit a written answer to the grievant or the Union within seven (7) working days after the meeting.

E. Step 2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, the grievant or the Union may appeal the grievance in writing to the Chancellor, his successor in office or his designee (hereinafter "department head") within seven (7) working days after receiving the written answer. The department head or his designee need not consider any grievance in Step 2 which encompasses different alleged violations or charges than those presented in Step 1. A meeting to discuss the grievance shall be held within seven (7) working days after receipt of the appeal. The department head or his designee shall reply in writing to the grievant or the Union within seven (7) working days after the meeting.

F. If the Union has a class grievance involving Employees within a college, administrative or program unit, it may submit the grievance in writing to the division head or his designee. Time limits shall be the same as in individual grievances and the procedures for appeal from unsatisfactory answers shall be the same as in Step 1.

If the Union has a class grievance involving Employees from more than one college, administrative or program unit, it may submit the grievance in writing to the department head. Time limits shall be the same as in individual grievances and the procedures for appeal from unsatisfactory answers shall be the same as in Step 2.

G. Step 3. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 2, the grievant or the Union may appeal the grievance in writing to the President or his designee (hereinafter "Employer") within seven (7) working days after receipt of the answer at Step 2. Within seven (7) working days after the receipt of the appeal, the Employer and the Union shall meet in an attempt to resolve the grievance. The Employer or his designee need not consider any grievance in Step 3 which encompasses a different alleged violation or charge than those presented in Step 2. The Employer or his designee shall reply in writing to the Union within seven (7) working days after the meeting.

H. Step 4. Arbitration. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3 and the Union desires to proceed with arbitration, it shall serve written notice on the Employer or his representative of its desire to arbitrate within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Employer's decision at Step 3. Representatives of the parties shall attempt to select an Arbitrator immediately thereafter. If agreement on an Arbitrator is not reached within ten (10) working days after the notice for arbitration is submitted, either party may request the Hawaii Public Employment Relations Board to submit a list of five (5) Arbitrators. Selection of an Arbitrator shall be made by each party alternately deleting one (1) name at a time from the list. The first party to delete a name shall be determined by lot. The person whose name remains on the list shall be designated the Arbitrator. No grievance may be arbitrated unless it involves an alleged violation of a specific term or provisions of the Agreement. The Arbitrator shall not consider any alleged violations or charges other than those presented in Step 3.

If the Employer disputes the arbitrability of any grievance, the Arbitrator shall first determine whether he has jurisdiction to act; and if he finds that he has no such power, the grievance shall be referred back to the parties without decision or recommendation on its merits.

The Arbitrator shall render his award in writing, no later than thirty (30) calendar days after the conclusion of the hearings or if oral hearings are waived then thirty (30) calendar days from the date statements and proofs were submitted to the Arbitrator. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Union, its members, the Employees involved in the grievance, and the Employer. There shall be no appeal from the Arbitrator's decision by either party, if such decision is within the scope of the Arbitrator's authority as described below:

1. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, disregard, alter, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement.

2. His power shall be limited to deciding whether the Employer has violated any of the terms of this Agreement.

3. In any case of suspension or discharge where the Arbitrator finds such suspension or discharge was improper, the Arbitrator may set aside, reduce or modify the action taken by the Employer. If the penalty is set aside, reduced or otherwise changed, the Arbitrator may award back pay to compensate the Employee, wholly or partially, for any wages lost because of the penalty.

4. The fees of the Arbitrator, the cost of transcription, and other necessary general costs, shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union. Each party will pay the cost of presenting its own case and the cost of any transcript that it requests.

ARTICLE 17 - TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENT

A. Employees may be assigned to fill a position at a higher pay range than their own on an "acting basis."

B. When it is expedient to assign an individual to fill a higher pay range position than his own on a "acting" basis, e.g., an Administrative Officer III temporarily detailed to assume the duties of a vacant Administrative Officer IV position, a temporary salary adjustment in the form of a stipend will be awarded subject to the following conditions:

1. The duration of the assignment to a higher pay range position will exceed 30 days and the individual is not filling a "deputy" or "assistant" position before such assignment which inherently requires the assumption of the higher level position during the absence of the incumbent. The stipend will be effective the first day of such assignment.

2. The duration of the assignment is for an identifiable period. Upon completion of the temporary assignment, the stipend will be terminated.

3. In no case will the amount of the stipend be less than $125 per month nor exceed the amounts indicated below.

The monthly stipend amount shall not exceed the following:

for Employees in pay ranges 1 to 5	$150
for Employees in pay ranges 6 to 10	$175
for Employees in pay ranges above 10	$200

5. Nothing in this Article contained shall be construed to prohibit the lawful payment of pay in lieu of vacation.

1. When a vacation is requested on a form prescribed by the Employer, it shall be granted and taken at such time or times as the Employer may designate; provided, that it shall be as close to the requested period as conditions in the unit will permit, and so as to prevent any forfeiture of vacation allowance.

But in the event that he is not eligible under the circumstances to receive pay in lieu of vacation, the acceptance of such new employment shall not of itself have the effect of forfeiting any vacation allowance to which he is then entitled. Pay for lapsed vacation in excess of the maximum allowed may be granted only as permitted by law.

H. Pay for Vacation Allowance Upon Termination

1. Whenever a termination of services takes place, the Employee is to be paid, in accordance with law, for his vacation allowance either in a lump sum or in the normal manner.

Application for such substitution of sick leave for vacation shall be made within five (5) working days upon return to work.

H. Sick leave shall be allowed for medical, dental, optical, and optometrical examination appointments which the Employee cannot schedule for non-work time.

I. Sick leave shall be allowed for temporary disabilities as defined under the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Guidelines, Title 29, Chapter 14, Section 1604, of the Code of Federal Regulations.

K. Academic year Employees are not eligible to accrue and accumulate sick leave.

L. Personnel appointed under research and training grants and contracts, and other extramural sources of funds, have sick leave comparable to other calendar year personnel. If the Employee's employment is terminated, the unused sick leave credit shall be void.

ARTICLE 32 - LEAVES OF ABSENCE WITHOUT PAY

A. Leave Without Pay for Professional Improvement

1. Leaves of absence without pay for professional improvement may be granted where such leave is determined to be to the advantage of the University, provided that the Employee's absence will not adversely affect the operations of the unit and the University. Such leaves will not be granted for periods longer than one year at a time. Leaves without pay which exceed one (1) month are creditable toward professional improvement leave with pay or salary increments if there is a prior agreement in writing.

2. Professional improvement leaves are granted only in cases where the recipient will enhance her/his value to the University by deliberately seeking to improve her/his professional abilities. In these leaves, the improvement of the recipient's professional abilities must be primary and direct, and not a secondary or incidental consequence, such as may result from employment by an outside agency.

a. If the support for the leave is provided by the recipient herself/himself, then the recipient's statement of purpose establishes whether the primary purpose is professional improvement.

b. If support is provided by an outside agency, then the agency's reason for providing support defines the primary reason for the leave.

c. Fellowships and foundation grants awarded to enable recipients to pursue the kind of research, scholarship and creative work which improve their professional abilities and so enhance their value to the University are considered to be for professional improvement.

B. Leave Without Pay for Personal Reasons

1. Leave without pay may be granted to an Employee for the purpose of engaging in activities judged by the Employer to be to the advantage of the University, but which do not qualify her/him for leave without pay for professional improvement, provided that the Employee's absence will not adversely affect the operations of the unit and the University. Such leaves shall normally not be granted for more than one (1) year at a time.

2. Personal leave may also be granted to an Employee for compassionate reasons, provided that the Employee's absence will not adversely affect the operations of the unit and the University. Such leaves shall not be granted for more than ninety (90) days at a time. When such leaves are of an emergency nature, approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

3. Leaves of absence for personal reasons are not creditable toward leave with pay for professional improvement or salary increments.

ARTICLE 33 - TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

A. When Employees are required to travel on official business to other islands within the State of Hawaii, they shall be provided with a travel allowance of $45 per 24-hour day.

In the case of official travel time involving a fraction of a day, the allowable claim shall be in terms of quarter-day periods, with the quarter-day periods measured from midnight. This shall also be applicable for one-day trips; that is, leaving and returning the same day.

B. When Employees are required to travel on official business to areas outside the State of Hawaii, they shall be provided a travel allowance of ninety dollars ($90) per 24-hour day.

In the case of official travel time involving a fraction of a day, the allowable claim shall be in terms of quarter-day periods, with the quarter-day periods measured from midnight.

C. The parties further agree that any jurisdiction which is currently providing its Employees a lower travel allowance than that provided above, shall, as of the effective date of this Agreement, conform to the new travel allowance; however, a jurisdiction which is providing its Employees a higher travel allowance than that provided above shall continue to do so for the duration of this Agreement.
